Daniel Warren is a skilled family law litigator. He has earned the recognition as a certified specialist in family law by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization. His experience also encompasses civil litigation, anti-SLAPP, contract, bankruptcy and criminal law. Mr. Warren has also worked on appellate matters including a successful reversal and remand of a trial department in family court. Mr. Warren conducted trials and argued matters in all four superior court houses in San Diego, Riverside County, Federal Bankruptcy Court and before the 4th District Court of Appeals.

A solution-focused, creative problem solver, Mr. Warren is deeply invested in securing the most favorable outcome possible for every case and is dedicated to providing advocacy that is uniquely tailored to each individual's needs. With a proactive communication style, he has built a strong reputation for being a reliable, detail-oriented attorney. He strives to provide persuasive advocacy and integrity and believes in being open and willing to explore settlement while still being prepared for litigation.
